Steel Plants Plan to Resume Next Week

Union Is Considered Virtually Certain to Ratify Agreement Negotiated at the White House

Washington (AP)—The longest, costliest steel strike in American history is over. Production is expected to resume next week.

The striking CIO Steelworkers Union was considered virtually certain today to ratify a strike-ending agreement reached at the White House after President Truman personally demanded—and got—settlement.

It was not a clear cut victory for anyone concerned—the union, industry, or the government. There was give and take on all sides.

The end of the crippling, 53-day strike was announced late yesterday by the President himself, with CIO President Philip Murray and S. Steel Chairman Benjamin Fairless "have reached agreement on important basic issues" after day-long conferences, and predicted a speedy resumption of steel production.

He said Murray would meet today with his 175-man Wage-Policy Committee to obtain ratification of the agreement.

Fairless, it was reliably learned, plans to make a personal appearance before this committee in a dramatic move aimed at wiping out any bitterness. The union invited him to make a short talk to the group after a closed session during which actual ratification of the agreement was scheduled.

At best it will be four or five days before any substantial production of steel is reached. It takes that long to heat up the banked blast furnaces which stand by workers have kept alive ever since the strike started June 2.

The new steel which comes out of some 380 struck plants will sell for at least $5.20 a ton more than before the strike started.

A few minutes after Truman's dramatic announcement the government approved a price increase of that amount for raw, or carbon, steel. Specialized, high-alloy steel will get a boost of $5.65 a ton.

The $5 price increase, ironically enough, was the price increase Charles E. Wilson, as defense mobilization, had said the industry should get to compensate for higher wage costs. Wilson said he thought he had presidential approval for an over-ceiling boost but Price Stabilizer Ellis Arnall refused to go along and said that as long as he was price boss the industry would not get more than the $2.84 allowed under the Caphart Amendment to the controls law.

Truman stuck with Arnall, and Wilson resigned in huff. He wrote the President, "You changed the plan we agreed upon."

No wage or other terms were announced at yesterday's White House session, but it was reliably learned the agreement includes these conditions:

STEEL STRIKE ENDS—President Harry S. Truman, center, confers with CIO President Philip Murray, left, and Benjamin Fairless, U. S. Steel Co. president, after the steel industry and the union reached an agreement to end the 53-day steel strike. President Truman ordered Murray and Fairless to Washington to settle the strike which had threatened the entire defense production of the nation.

American Sets New Record for 3,000 Meter Steeplechase

Helsinki (AP)—Horace Ashenfelter, the galloping FBI man from Glen Ridge, N. J., today won the Olympic 3,000 meters steeplechase. It was the first time an American has won the steeplechase since the modern Olympic Games began.

Ashenfelter's time was 8.45.8, breaking the Olympic record. This was the fastest time this event ever has been run in track history. There is no official world record for the steeplechase because courses vary.

Vladimir Kazantsev of Russia was second and John Disley of Great Britain was third.

Ashenfelter won when he successfully negotiated the water jump about 150 meters from the finish and Kazantsev faltered there. It had been a shoulder-to-shoulder duel all the way but the Russian forged ahead a yard on the backstretch of the last lap.

The crowd of 70,000 regarded Ashenfelter's victory the biggest upset of the record-shattering meet.

The old Olympic steeplechase record was nine minutes, 3.8 seconds, set by Volmar Iso-Hollo of Finland in 1936.

Ashenfelter, a consistent winner in longer races in the United States, never before had shown anything that would rank him with the great Europeans.

PROHIBITION PARTY WILL MEET ON JULY 28

DuBois (AP)—The Pennsylvania Prohibition Party meets in Williamsport July 28. One question sure to come up is the state's refusal to enter the party's candidates on the November election ballot.

The State Election Bureau said minority party candidates failed to file the required loyalty oaths with their petitions.

R. R. Blews, state Prohibition Party Chairman, said the oath should have been printed on the back of the petitions.

Some 300 delegates also will elect officers and discuss temperance work during the one-day convention.

Thousands of Television Viewers See Unscheduled Bit of Drama in Chicago

Chicago (AP)—Thousands of television viewers saw an unscheduled bit of drama at the Democratic National Convention early today when a burning newspaper threatened to set off a stampeding panic.

Assistant Fire Commissioner Anthony J. Mullaney expressed the opinion the blaze may have been set deliberately to force a recess in the marathon session.

Three men, including Ames Heacock, president of Air Transport Associates, Inc., of Seattle, were burned slightly while putting

Ten To Be Called For Induction August 12

Word was received today by Melvin G. Keller, Warren county selective service chairman, that the local board must send 10 men to Harrisburg to take pre-induction physical examinations on August 12.

The group is to leave Warren by Pullman at 9:05 p. m., Daylight Time, Monday, August 11, and will return to Warren on the morning train August 13.

Names of those to be examined will be announced soon, the board already being in the process of selecting 17 young men for actual induction in Harrisburg on August 20.

Industrialist Gives Help Tour Abroad

Pittsburgh (AP)—Employees of a Pittsburgh Industrial Designing Firm, are going to Europe—on vacation—at company expense.

Workers at H. G. Burr Co. and their wives—94 in all—take off tomorrow in two chartered planes for a hop across the Atlantic and two weeks overseas.

They'll tour five Western European countries by bus and train, stopping at Paris for three days. After a few days in London the vacationers will fly back home.

Hotel accommodations and all meals will be provided. Employees need not spend a penny.

Howard G. Burr, 35-year-old president of the company, feels the trip will be good for international relations and at the same time give his workers a chance to see Europe.

Burr estimates the vacation will cost about $54,000.

"But it's well worth it," he adds. "Among other things, it's good for employee relations."

This isn't the first mass vacation sponsored by the company. Last year the firm took 38 employees and their wives on a one-week plane trip to Bermuda.

McKEAN MILK DEALERS WILL HAVE A HEARING

Smethport (AP)—The State Milk Control Commission says it will hold a board hearing before ruling on a request of seven McKean County milk dealers for discontinuance of a five cent deposit on glass milk bottles.

The request was filed yesterday. The dealers testified the deposit on bottles creates a hardship in competing with milk sold in paper cartons on which no deposit is required.

TRUMAN SPARES LIFE OF PUERTO RICAN MAN

Washington (AP)—President Truman is sparing the life of the Puerto Rican who tried to assassinate him at Blair House in 1950.

Presidential Secretary Joseph Short announced without comment—late yesterday—that the death sentence of Oscar Collazo had been commuted to life imprisonment.

News Blackout On Armistice Talks Is Finally Lifted

Munsan, Korea (AP)—The three-week news blackout was lifted today, showing the deadlock over prisoner exchange—final issue blocking a truce—still unbroken.

Despite a United Nations offer to return an additional 13,000 captives to the Communists, 18 off-the-record meetings since July 4 proved "completely fruitless," said Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr.

"We are no nearer a solution of the problem today than we were on July 4," the chief Allied delegate said.

Starting tomorrow proceedings will be made public daily as formerly.

The U. N. command said it refused to back down on its decision not to return forcibly any prisoner to the Communists. Only 83,000 of 170,000 Allied-held POWs want to be repatriated, Harrison said.

This is an increase of 13,000 over the figure submitted to the Reds earlier, before screening of POWs was completed.

The Allies said the Communists insisted on the return of 118,000 prisoners. These include 20,000 Chinese captives of whom only 6,400 will return voluntarily.

MR. SCHOENTHALER STILL UNIMPROVED

At Warren General Hospital this afternoon it was reported that Charles W. Schoenthaler, 500 Water street, remains in an unchanged condition regarded as critical.

Mr. Schoenthaler, 78, was struck by a car, Wednesday, on the Fifth street bridge.

MRS. PENN'A CONTEST

Johnstown (AP)—Mrs. Pennsylvania will be selected August 16 at the annual state-wide elimination contest in Johnstown.

The winner will compete in the national finals at Asbury Park, N. J., Sept. 7.

KILLED BY AUTO

Altoona (AP)—An auto killed James M. Payne, 52, of Barres, Huntingdon County, yesterday as he alighted from his truck on the William Penn Highway.

CIO Delegates Asked To Support Stevenson

Chicago (AP)—Jack Kroll, CIO political action director, today asked all CIO member-delegates at the Democratic Convention to vote for Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

Kroll issued a statement through a press aide saying that he wanted all CIO members who are convention delegates to vote for Stevenson as presidential nominee "as soon as they can fulfill their commitments."

By this he said he meant they should vote for Stevenson on the first ballot, or on the soonest subsequent ballot possible.

Titusville Man Is Instantly Killed Crossing Highway

Titusville (AP)—Arthur R. Doud, 72, of Titusville, was killed yesterday by an auto as he crossed Route 8 four miles north of here. He was returning from a berry picking trip.

The victim was well known in the Titusville area, having lived here virtually his entire life. He was prominent in the I. O. O. F. and other organizations.

Mr. Doud was born Nov. 4, 1879, at Goodwill Hill, Warren County, a son of Oscar and Silence Falkenstein Doud. The family moved to Ashville, N. Y., when he was 12 years old and in July, 1901, he returned to Titusville where he lived since.

On Oct. 22, 1904, he married the former Alta Sterling of Titusville at Jamestown, N. Y.

He worked for the I. L. Shank Lumber Company for 17 years and was employed at the former Allan Hardware store for 23 years. When the store was sold he went to work at the Struthers Wells Corporation where he was an employee at the time of his death.

Mr. Doud was a member of the I. O. O. F. and a past noble grand; a past chief patriarch of Petrolia Encampment and secretary of the encampment for 31 years, and a member of the Loyal Order of Moose.

The body was removed to the E. A. Peterson funeral home. Funeral arrangements will be announced.

FRENCH INFANTRYMEN HURL BACK CHINESE

Seoul, Korea (AP)—French infantrymen today hurled back a 500-man Chinese Communist drive on T-Bone Hill in a bloody opening to the 26th month of the Korean War. French defenders of the Western Front hill inflicted heavy losses during two hours of pre-dawn hand-to-hand combat.

A frontline Allied officer estimated 56 Chinese were killed and 150 wounded. The cut-up Red forces withdrew two hours later.

DISTRICT BUSINESS SHOWS SLIGHT GAIN

Pittsburgh (AP)—Business in the Pittsburgh District gained slightly last week despite a drop in the volume of trade, the University of Pittsburgh reports.

The university's business index stood at 93.7 per cent of the 1935-39 average last week. It was 184.7 per cent the week before the nation-wide steel strike was called June 2.

Safety Group Adopts Program Intended To Reduce Number Pedestrian Fatalities

Hershey, Pa. (AP)—A majority of pedestrians killed in accidents along the state's highways seem to be getting killed because of their own failure, the Safety Committee of the Pennsylvania Automotive Association was told today.

Speaking at a one-day session of the group attended by new car dealers from all over the state, T. Elmer Transeau, state highway safety director, said, "In other words, pedestrians are running or walking to their own death."

The committee endorsed a three-point program, similar to one recently adopted by Gov. John S. Fine's Highway Safety Advisory Committee, designed to reduce pedestrian accidents and fatalities.

The three points of the resolution:

1. Bring to the attention of the public the need for more pedestrian responsibility.
2. Support amendment of the State Motor Vehicle Code to make the pedestrian assume his rightful responsibility.
3. Back appropriate local ordinances calling for proper control of pedestrian traffic.

Opponents Maneuver to Stall Stevenson Steam-Roller That Seems to Gain Momentum

Convention Hall, Chicago (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson of Illinois picked up terrific momentum today in a labor-backed surge toward the Democratic presidential nomination.

With the balloting proceeding slowly in this suddenly calmed Convention Hall, the Illinois governor racked up the powerful support of the CIO Political Action Committee.

At the same time, a strategist for Averell Harriman conceded that the New Yorker and the only all-out "Fair Dealer" among 111 presidential aspirants, soon may fall by the wayside.

Sen. Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, linked with Harriman in various "Fair Deal" convention maneuvers which have failed, was in line to benefit from the New Yorker's possible withdrawal.

Kefauver, apparently short of the votes necessary for the top spot on the ticket, was reported to be maneuvering for a Stevenson-Kefauver ticket.

Convention Hall, Chicago (AP)—The feuding, quarreling Democratic Convention today reached the hour for its big job—picking a presidential candidate—with a big field of hopefuls striving desperately to stop a roll toward Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois.

Backers of Estes Kefauver and Averell Harriman, whipped in the terrific last night-early today battle over seating Southern rebels against a loyalty pledge, hoped for a shift of sentiment in the delegates trooping back into this hall for the payoff.

They believed they had perhaps slowed a Stevenson steam-roller by delaying tactics which stalled off a presidential ballot last night although leaders kept the convention in session until two o'clock in the morning.

The way the Stevenson forces maneuvered to seat the Virginia, Louisiana, and South Carolina delegations, despite their refusal to take a loyalty pledge, pointed toward a Southerner as the No. 2 man on the ticket—if Stevenson wins.

But those Northern elements which fly the "liberal" banner indicated they would scrap to get one of their men accepted.

The newly-seated Virginia delegates caucused and voted to give their 28 votes to Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia on the first ballot.

They had been leaning that way but were not formally committed heretofore.

With 10 candidates in the field, it might well take several ballots to shake out the "favorite sons" and get a decision.

Even in this climactic hour, Stevenson still wasn't saying whether he would accept a nomination.

He left his residence for a stroll this morning and news reporters flocked about him. One asked if he would accept a draft.

Stevenson: "I haven't got anything to say."

With the start of balloting only a few hours away, the Associated Press tabulation of known first ballot standings was:

Kefauver 272½.
Stevenson 215.
Sen. Richard Russell of Georgia 207.

Harriman 170½.
Others 247½.
Uncommitted 179½.

Needed to nominate 615½.
Working together in what they have styled a "liberal" combine which has attracted supporters of called June 2.

Pennsylvanians Still Not Sure After Caucus

Chicago (AP)—Showdown time arrived for Pennsylvania delegates and all the rest of the Democratic Convention today. But for the 80-member Keystone State group it looked like a last-possible-minute decision.

First order of business when the convention got underway was balloting on presidential nominations. But a few hours in advance of the session the Pennsylvanians didn't know how they would be counted.

A scheduled caucus yesterday morning, following a delegation breakfast, had produced only about an hour of conversation that came to an end early today. There was no opportunity for a caucus.

Pennsylvania did vote once, a 57-13 alignment in favor of seating the contested Virginia delegation. That vote was arrived at by agreement between the delegation chairman, former U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers and backers of Sen. Estes Kefauver. Myers is floor leader of the forces seeking the nomination for Gov. Adlai Stevenson.

A second opportunity came at midnight, and for a moment looked like it might be the same sort of a showdown the Pennsylvania Republican Convention group reached here two weeks ago before the first GOP nomination ballot.

But Myers postponed Pennsylvania's vote after three Kefauver backers, State Sen. Samuel G. Neff of Millwood City, Philadelphia's Mayor Joseph S. Clark and Dist. Atty. Richardson Dilworth, rejected his offer of an agreement.

They insisted they wanted to poll the group, although Myers had offered to "split the delegation" in a 35-35 vote on the question of continuing or recessing the session.

Stevenson backers at that time still were hoping for a presidential vote during the night, and a quick victory. Kefauver forces were fighting to force a delay.

At one point Myers flatly accepted the challenge and told his aides to "pass the word to our people" on how to vote. Had such a roll call come about, it would have been an out-and-out test of strength between the Stevenson forces and those backing Kefauver and other candidates.

But the strategy of delay, either intentional or accidentally, postponed the showdown. By the time the roll call reached Pennsylvania the issue had been settled and the weary Kefauver group somewhat reluctantly agreed to the 35-35 offer, avoiding a roll call that would have taken a long time.

Jeweler in Bombing Plot Pays Penalty

Montreal, Canada (AP)—A crippled Quebec watchmaker, convicted of fashioning the time-bomb which brought death to 23 airliner passengers and crew in September 1949, died early today on the gallows in Montreal's Boreaux jail.

Generaux Ruest, 54, helpless from the waist down but described as a "wizard with his hands" went to his death for "deliberately helping" jeweler J. Albert Quay murder the latter's 28-year-old wife by means of the explosion in flight. Ruest was carried to the scaffold in a wheelchair.

Quay was hanged Jan. 12, 1951, for master-minding the bombing plot. He concocted the scheme for love of a young waitress and to collect $10,000 insurance on his wife's life.

FRATERNAL ORDER OF POLICE NAME OFFICERS

Harrisburg (AP)—An Allegheny county motorcycle patrolman, Frank J. Topelski, is the new president of the Pennsylvania Lodge, Fraternal Order of Police. Topelski won a spirited contest yesterday with former vice president James C. Daugherty, Pittsburgh, to succeed F. William McCallum, Philadelphia who had been president for eight years.

Mrs. Mary M. Pinter, Chester County Lodge, was elected president of the women's auxiliary, succeeding Mrs. Frances D. Page, Harrisburg.

That new diesel locomotive which hauled trains 980 and 981 between Corry and Oil City for two days has been removed for service elsewhere. However, the railroad's own figures, presented at the hearing in Franklin last month, showed that in the 12-month period ending June 30, 1951, steam locomotive repairs on the run amounted to $23,183, fuel to $9,835, water to $1,032 and engine-house expenses to $7,165.

Strike Settlement Speeds Movement of Ore From Erie

With settlement of the steel strike, local officials of the Pennsylvania railroad said today that many as 24 ore trains per day will soon be passing through Warren.

It also is anticipated that the hundreds of section hands, operators and signalmen, furloughed this division since the strike began, will be called back to work within a few days.

Acres of storage docks at Conneaut Harbor, not in full use since the days of World War I, are being used with ore. The storage es extend south along Conneaut Creek almost to the old brick plant and the site of the former bridge. Crews were being called back today by the Bessemer and Lake Erie Railroad and tracks in the area are being cleared. The ore piles at Erie, waiting transport, are the largest in the area.

In addition to the many tons of which must be moved from Conneaut Harbor and from Erie, number of ore freighters are being loaded both harbors to be loaded. The same condition exists at Ashtabula, Fairport and Cleveland, which ports are served by Pennsylvania branches.

The exceptionally heavy traffic through Warren is expected to be regular way by Monday or Tuesday.

Disaster Averted In Canning Industry

Pittsburgh (AP)—Charles W. York, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Canners Association, said today the steel strike ended just in time to prevent a disaster in the country's canned food industry.

York said railroad cars will be waiting at mill gates to load stored tin plate the minute plants open. Here to attend a meeting of the 1952 Pennsylvania Week committee, York said:

"It is still too early to predict how much damage has been done to the canning business. It depends on too many 'ifs', such as condition of the stored tin plate. How fast it can be delivered to can manufacturers and how quick can deliveries can be made to canners."

York estimated that approximately 10 per cent of the nation's annual canning business already has been lost.

Plans Rushed To Get Steel Flowing

Washington (AP)—The government today rushed plans to get steel flowing to the country's faltering industries — especially to arms plants and packers of the perishable food crops.

Some tinplate — finished but locked up for 54 days in picketed mills — may be moving to car manufacturers as early as this afternoon.

Union ratification of the agreement this afternoon, would save the food stuffs, officials said. They hoped to get mobilization back on its timetable by year's end.

These officials said, however, that some civilian producers — makers of autos, household appliances and less essential items — may have to wait for weeks for new steel from the mills. That's because military deliveries will come first.

To save the foods, the interstate commerce commission already was dispatching to mills enough freight cars to pick up 140,000 tons of idle tinplate.

ONE AMERICAN'S WORK WEEK WAGES BUYS HIM THE AMOUNT OF FOOD EARNED BY

Five and a half Russian workers would have to labor a week to earn enough to buy the food-money earned in one week by an American industrial worker. And so on down the line, as shown on Newschart above. True, the Yank pays, on the average, higher prices for his food. But his wages are so much higher that for a given amount of worktime he commands greater quantities of food than the same worktime earns in other countries. Data are from a National Industrial Conference Board survey based on Bureau of Labor Statistics figures.

Weather Trend Is Lower Temperature

By The Associated Press
The weather trend today was toward more comfortable temperatures in some heat-harassed areas.

The Weather Bureau said cooler air spreading over the Northern Plains States was expected to move eastward and southward accompanied by scattered thunderstorms.

Yesterday many cities in the Northern Plains as well as the South Central States reported temperatures around the 100-degree mark.

Comparatively cool temperatures prevailed, however, in northeastern and northwestern United States. Readings were in the 70s and 80s from New England into the Great Plains during midday yesterday.

SECOND LUTHERAN FEDERATION MEETING

Hannover, Germany (AP)—The second Lutheran World Federation assembly gathered here today with only one bishop from an Iron Curtain country permitted to attend.

The East German Communist ban on travel to the assembly "proclaims the totalitarianism of the Iron Curtain countries," said Dr. Abdel Ross Wentz of Gettysburg, Pa., the assembly's vice president, in an interview. Dr. Wentz is professor of church history at the Lutheran Theological Seminary at Gettysburg.

About 5,000 Lutherans from East Germany had sought to attend, but their travel permits were withheld. Lutheran leaders here from 24 countries said they still had received no word from the delegates of Poland, Hungary and Czechoslovakia who had hoped to be here.

This Communist obstruction said Dr. Wentz, "will only intensify our determination to stand by our brethren in the east."

Sylvania Sets All-Time Company Record In Net Sales First Six Months of Year

New York (AP)—Sylvania Electric Products Inc., reported its net sales for the first six months of 1952 totaled $104,226,623, an all-time company record for half-year's operations.

Highest previous sales for a half-year, according to President Don G. Mitchell, were reported for the first six months of 1951 when shipments amounted to $103,822,579.

Net sales for the three months ended June 30 amounted to $48,239,162, also a company high for a second quarter and nearly 12 per cent greater than the $43,191,494 reported for the April-June period of 1951.

Mr. Mitchell reported to stockholders that net income for the second quarter was $1,445,005. After provision for dividends on the preferred stock, this amounted to 60 cents per share on the common stock outstanding. This compares with net income of $2,165,515, or $1.11 a share, in the second quarter of 1951.

For the first half of 1952, net income was $3,398,775, or $1.48 per share of common stock against $5,680,670, or $2.95 a share, in the first six months of 1951. Reserves for federal taxes on income were accrued at the rate of 60.5 per cent for the six months.

Mrs. Mitchell said the fact that net earnings for the June quarter were one-third less than those of the corresponding period a year earlier was attributable to higher manufacturing and selling costs and softer prices. He pointed out that a general wage and salary increase, amounting to about $8,000,000 a year, went into effect in the summer of 1951 and that "not only has there been little price relief to offset this heavy increase in cost, but in several lines the prevailing prices are lower than they were a year ago."

He also cited the company's practice of absorbing starting-up charges as they occur and explained that due to a number of new plants, starting-up charges are extra large this year. Most of the starting-up operations, however, should be completed by the end of the year, he said.

Customer inventories continued to be reduced during the period, Mr. Mitchell reported, although at the beginning of the second half there was some evidence that trade inventories were down fairly close to a working level. It was apparent, however, that buying would "be kept on somewhat of a hand-to-mouth basis" until there is a more general firming of prices.

The Sylvania president said that while the market for television sets was seasonally slow during the quarter, manufacturers stepped up orders for picture tubes and "everywhere in the industry

Ball Is Over For "Cinderella Man"
Chicago (AP)—The ball is over today for the Democratic National Convention's political Cinderella.

He can take off his mask and be just plain Thomas J. Gavin, councilman of Kansas City, Mo.

When it came time for Missouri to ballot, he cast one-half vote for delegate Harry S. Truman of Independence, Mo., president of the United States.

His VIP-type badge hung heavily on his chubby chest. It was engraved, "Dean G. Acheson, secretary of state." That was so he could wait with ease about the jam-packed Convention Hall.

Neither the real Truman nor the real Acheson was at the convention. They were in Washington. His biggest moment came yesterday. He ended a long guessing game, on whom Truman would support at a Missouri caucus.

"I intend to cast Mr. Truman's vote for the governor of Illinois," Mr. Stevenson.

It was, he said, "the President's choice."

Mossadegh's Chief Issues a Warning

Tehran, Iran (AP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh's new national police chief warned Iranians last night that Communists are attempting to use the nationalist outbreaks which drove ex-Premier Ahmed Qavan from power to further "sinister" Red aims.

Speaking in a nation-wide radio broadcast, Police Chief Kazam Sheibani indicated members of the outlawed Tudeh Communist party had infiltrated Nationalist organizations.

"Hound out such elements from your ranks and try to know them and reveal their plans," Sheibani urged the Nationalists. "You must know that such people ostensibly but secretly prepare means to put into effect their filthy and perfidious plans."

meat cuts which need long cooking. Beef rib roasts, for example, were plentiful and were being offered at special reduced prices in many areas. So were fowl and turkeys and pot roasts. Meat dealers said lower production would have brought higher prices for pork if consumption had not dropped so much because of the heat.
Top grade eggs tipped down-consumer resistance to high prices after weeks of advancing. Dealers were turning to the cheaper storwere buying medium and smaller sizes. Supplies of pullet and pee-

Butter prices held unchanged.
Wholesale butter trading was re-

Pear prices dropped sharply with the arrival of heavy ship-weather conditions in important Southern producing areas. So far supplies have been restricted largely to early varieties. Nationally, peach production this year was forecast at 68 million bushels, or 7 per cent larger than last year.

Blueberries were still abundant and in the good buy class in most places, and blackberries were beginning to show up here and there. Tomatoes were plentiful and cheaper, but much of the supply was of only poor to fair quality. Beans, cabbage and peas cost a little more this week. Corn was low but of irregular quality. Squash and onions were described as bargain vegetables.
These foods were mentioned on the lists of week-end specials by major store chains and independent markets: Beef rib roasts, chuck steaks, smoked beef tongues, smoked picnic hams, turkeys, fowl, pears, peaches, honeydew melons, lettuce, corn, cucumbers and several varieties of fresh and frozen fish.

They're always working for... or against you. A man with no savings, no nest egg, finds the clock working steadily against him — remorselessly shortening the time left for him to make himself financially secure.

Bible Words to Live by
I have no single favorite Bible verse. There are, of course, a great many which make a special appeal to me, but of these I cannot single out one and say that I place it above all the others.
A verse to which I find myself constantly turning is:
MARK 12:30—"And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment."
There is a place in religion for the exercise of the intelligence. God wants our heads as well as our hearts. To think, and to think hard, is a religious duty. Devoting one's mind to the service of God is every bit as necessary as private prayer or public worship. When God claims a man, He claims the whole man, his brains included. How one wishes that more people would give their brains to the service of religion and do it with something like the diligence and devotion that fill their days from Monday to Friday.

Samuel: A Child Destined for Greatness
BY WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
THE story of Samuel, the little Jewish boy who grew up in the temple, the servant of Eli the High Priest, and destined for greatness as the successor of Eli and the leader of Israel in crucial and dangerous times is not without thrilling interest.
Two long Books of the Old Testament are devoted to Samuel and his times. It is the story of a child, and in its earlier part, before the pages are stained with the bloodshed and tragedies of a war-stricken time, a story for children.
It is a story for wives and mothers, who must surely get a sympathetic thrill from the portrayal of Hannah, an apparently barren woman mocked by a feckless wife in a dual marriage, and praying so earnestly for a child that her passionate pleas and murmurings were mistaken for drunkenness by the High Priest who saw her.
It is a story for men, especially for husbands. Elkanah, even in a day when it was not uncommon for a man to have two wives, comforted the barren and forlorn Hannah with the assurance that he could not love her more than he did, if she had 10 children. There, in that crude age, was a man and an understanding mate; I am amazed that the pages of romance have not made more of his story. I think I have heard of only one modern man who has borne his honorable name.
Then, of course, it is a story of religion, of a mother's deep devotion and the consecration of her babe to the service of God.
In every respect it is a moving story, and as it moves toward greatness it moves also toward tragedy and the temporary, and terrible, defeat of Samuel's Israel, and the ruin and downfall of at least one strong man.
The boy, Samuel, came to manhood and leadership at a time when the condition of Israel was at about the lowest ebb that it had ever been since the people had emerged from the wilderness in the flight from Egypt. Religiously, the situation was typified in Eli, a good and well-intentioned but weak man, "whose sons made themselves vile, and he restrained them not." The depth of the corruption of these sons was marked, not only by evil in themselves, but by the foul perversion of the worship in the temple itself by acts of depravity and licentiousness.
Whether or not this religious condition was responsible for the lack of morale and the military weakness of the people, Samuel succeeded Eli at an hour of disaster. For Eli's death came in a fatal fall as a messenger from the battlefield reported the complete defeat of Israel, and the capture of the Ark of the Covenant by the enemy.
The strength and morale of Samuel himself became manifest as he now assumed the full responsibilities cast upon him. Would the child of love and devotion succeed, or fail? Would he be true to the consecration to which a devoted mother had committed him?
It is a mixed and intricate story, a part at least of which I shall seek to unravel, when I write again of Samuel: Success or Failure?

The Changing Landscape

"Tex" Neel Soil Conservation Service, Warren

Hello folks! As you all know July 20-26 has been proclaimed by the President of the United States, as National Farm Safety Week. This being the end of the week it would be a good idea to check on the common causes of death and accidents to see what we did to reduce the 15,000 deaths and 1,300,000 injuries suffered by farm folks every year.

Have we checked the medicine chest in the home to be sure it is full and ready to be used if needed and that it is kept locked where there are small children around? Has rubbish been cleared from work, walking and storage areas? Are ladders and stairs safe and is that bull lead on a staff regardless of how gentle he may seem? How about those loose rugs on slippery floors? Do we practice safety on the highways whether walking, driving cars or tractors? Have the guards and equipment been fixed so it is safe to work around the machinery on the farm? Industries have safety programs and inspectors to make and keep the work safe but each farmer has to be his own safety inspector. Think safety, act safety, and LIVE. Living safely means conservation of life.

From the weather standpoint it was just a little hard to be sure whether I had returned to Pennsylvania or was still in Kentucky. I think a few words about Ft. Knox may be quite educational for the many people not acquainted with it. There are over 106,000 acres, about one-fifth the size of Warren County, in the Post area with many, many miles of paved roads and sidewalks. There are residential and business districts; all kinds of public utilities such as electric, gas, water, telephone and telegraph service.

It is a city in itself and has its own police force, fire department, banks, theatres, laundries, barber shops, beauty shops, garages, repair shops and super-markets.

County Attorneys To Hold Convention

Highlighting cooperation and coordination between local, state and federal law enforcement agencies in combating major crime, the second annual conference of the National Association of County and Prosecuting Attorneys will be held July 30th through August 1st at the Nicolet Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota.

According to Frank Coakley, association president and District Attorney of Alameda County, Oakland, California, and M. A. Kornreich, district attorney for Warren County, and Association Director for Pennsylvania, nationally known authorities on the administration of criminal justice and civil public law will participate in the sessions in which the increasing importance of uniform and reciprocal legislation and aids and procedures of the federal government available to city, county and state government for more effective and vigorous cooperation between, and coordination of, all law enforcement agencies, will be discussed by speakers and members.

The town of New Salem, Ind., where Abraham Lincoln once lived, literally disappeared, says the National Geographic Society. Many of its log buildings were dismantled and carried to a nearby town.

The grave of Nancy Hanks Lincoln, is at Lincoln City, Ind.

Food, clothing and all types of supplies are for sale to military and civilian personnel. The Rod and Gun Club, golf courses, swimming pools and other clubs are part of the recreational facilities available to people on the post. Trains, bus and taxis comprise the transportation facilities. On the serious side is the training of recruits, by the famous 3rd Armored Division. The training is efficient, intense and of such quality that it prepares the men to be good combat soldiers. It is also the home of the Armored School. See you all next week.

HELL'S HORSEMAN BY WILLIAM HOPSON

Chapter 11
The conversation was getting decidedly uncomfortable for Montana and he cast about him for a way to switch it to a less dangerous subject. A little more as he was might start peering together the facts that McBain had been on lookout duty in Smelter-A-Mile had boarded the train within seven or eight miles of the place, and had been killed by the man who had gotten on there. He undoubtedly had apprised Black Jack of these facts and Black Jack was no fool.
"I don't know who he is," Runderd had growled in answer to Helen's question. "Nobody does, except maybe Buckner."
"I heard in town," Belle said, "that Black Jack and Dutch Saunderson were there. I saw one man with a black beard crossing the street that could have been that cheap horse thief. You know anything about it?"
"He was in town, all right," Runderd had said.
It was Belle's turn to register surprise. "You talked to him to Black Jack Caswell?" she demanded.
"For a few minutes. He wanted to know about McBain. I told him what happened. That our friend plugged him when Mack, for some reason went for his gun. What about it, Edmonds?" he asked.
"Sorry, but my affair with McBain was personal," Montana answered shortly. "Maybe he thought I was this Montana gent who'd been talking about. Whatever it was, it's past history and I'd rather not mention it again."
He turned his attention away to indicate the subject as being closed looking out the window and back along the road. A movement caught his eyes far to the rear. The stage rocked on another mile and the movement came again, more plainly. Horsemen were back there in the rear.
They were being followed.
Hour after hour the stage rolled on through wild virgin country. Orndorff taking frequent nips from a quart bottle drove the horses on at an amazingly fast clip.
Montana sat watching and occasionally added a word to the conversation. But for the most part he was thinking of those riders back there. Twice more within the next ten miles he had caught sight of them. They had pulled off to one side keeping to the timber. It would be Black Jack, all right.
Shortly after one o'clock the stage rolled down through an opening among the trees through which they were passing. Orndorff set the brakes and leaned down with a black beard about the earlier morning cold. Helen flexed her soft young body and looked about her and again Montana caught the veiled look in Runderd's eyes.
Helen had, in the presence of the country's grandeur, forgotten for the moment the recent loss of her father. She glanced at the man who had come with them. He removed his coat for it was now quite warm and again her eyes went with a slight revulsion to the big pistol he wore. She turned away as he clambered up on the stage and brought down his warbag.
Montana placed it on the ground, then began giving Orndorff a hand with the traces. Orndorff, the quart bottle sticking from one hip pocket, took up the lines and drove the six down among the trees, with Montana following. He put down the warbag, brought out his working clothes and began a swift change.
Montana has good clothes in the bag, stowed off toward the creek to wash up.
Montana finished his ablutions in the cold water of the creek, and returned to find that the girls had spread blankets beneath the rear of the stage and were sitting in comfort. Orndorff was almost ready to serve the food. And Montana heard Belle Ramson saying: "Out with it, Ro. You've stalled long enough. What's wrong at the ranch?"
"It's not only the ranch—it's a lot of other things," Runderd grunted from his position on a nearby rock. He was making queer little marks on the ground with a sharp stick. "King seems to think that Black Jack and the Dutchman are back of it. He's been losing a lot more stock than even he thought. I was supposed to clean the last of it off the ranch a week before the new herd got here from down South, but I wasn't long finding out there wasn't any. Belle King's been rustled pretty badly. But it didn't take long to find out what I've been suspecting for some time: your own riders were long-looping AR stuff and selling at least some of it to Black Jack and the Dutchman. And that includes you white-haired boy Austin," he sneered.
"How do you know?" Belle Ramson demanded while Helen sat quietly waiting.
"Through McBain. I met him in Buckner's one night a few months back." "Then Black Jack and the Dutchman intend a steal on this herd?" gasped out Belle, who found the audacity of the plan hard to believe. Six hundred head.
"That's my guess," grunted Runderd.

Wrestling Card Presented As Benefit for Kiwanis Charity Attracts a Fair-Sized Crowd

Sponsored by the Kiwanis Club as a benefit for the fund for Underprivileged Children, a program of professional wrestling exhibitions was staged under lights at War Memorial Field last evening before a fair-sized crowd which mixed "boos" with cheers as the six gladiators in three matches pummeled each other, accompanied by the usual mixed groans and grunts, intermingled with hair-pulling and belly punches.

An incident which fortunately did not have any serious consequences occurred midway in the main bout between Joe Sacco and Pete Greco, when the former, after being thrown from the ring by his opponent, picked up a claw hammer and flipped it in the direction of Greco. The hammer slipped from his hand with such force it skidded across the ring into the crowd on the opposite side, barely missing an adult spectator, and grazing the shoulder of ten-year old Fred Henry, South South street. The lad was immediately examined by a physician and treated in the Lutz-Vermilyea ambulance. He received no serious injury and later chatted with the penitent Sacco, who had publicly apologized and expressed his regret over the incident.

Officers of the Warren Kiwanis club today expressed themselves as disappointed with the caliber of entertainment provided by the grapplers, and in order to make certain that the next program will meet with more satisfaction on the part of the fans, decided that there will be no program next week, in order to provide more time to work out the details. However, the bill will find at least two and possibly more, local men including Homer Barr, 225, wrestling coach at Warren High School, and Bob Benson, 175, one of the outstanding wrestlers on the 1951-52 Warren High School squad who later starred at State College.

For the matches last evening Joe Gardner and Jerry Peterson of Warren were the judges, Carmon Rusie, of Buffalo, refereed the preliminaries, and Ted Thomas, well known to TV fans in the area, handled the main bout. Bob Laduca, of Buffalo, was the timer.

The first match last evening between Phil Muscato, 190, and Frank Rich, 185, both of Buffalo, ended in a draw after thirty minutes of mixing that included boxing, wrestling and tumbling. Rocky Montana, 175, was the villain in the 45-minute semi-final with Horace Fiorella, 185. The match was awarded to Fiorella when Montana threw the referee out of the ring after about 16 minutes.

The main bout, between Sacco and Greco, found the wrestlers prancing and rolling outside the ring much of the time. The first fall went to Sacco, and Greco managed to take the next two before the curfew which had been announced for eleven o'clock.

Quarters in the home of Mary Speaker, 405 Lexington avenue, were used by the wrestlers as a dressing room. Six members of the Warren police department were on hand to help patrol the crowd, doing an excellent job in escorting the grapplers to and from the ring.

Kiwanis officials are grateful for the interest and support given the project, the proceeds of which will be used in the club's work in behalf of Underprivileged Children. The next card will be a benefit for War Memorial Field, details of which will be announced as soon as they are worked out.

Saddle Club Meets, Plans Aug. 3 Show

Holding a special meeting last evening, members of the Y-Bar-U Saddle Club completed plans for their coming Horse Show, which will be staged at Mahaffey's Field on Sunday, August 3, instead of August 4, as previously announced.

Members and friends of the club have planned a special event for this week, a winner roast to be held Saturday evening at Kirby's Camp at Russell.

Two counties in West Virginia, McDowell and Logan, each produced more than 16 million tons of coal in 1949.

Emblem Oil Loses To Guiffre Market In Close Contest

Bill Massa's ninth inning single with two outs drove in the run that pulled Guiffre's Grocery out of the fire and nipped Emblem Oil by a slim 8-7 margin in one of the most outstanding industrial loop frays played at the State Hospital diamond last night.

The first-half champs still, however, remain two games behind the leading Thomas Coupling aggregation.

Emblem was leading the game 5-3 until the bottom of the eighth when Harold Brown homered with Berardi and Massa on, reversing the score to 6-5, Guiffre's. At this point in the game Esterbrook was relieved by Kifer.

In the losers half of the ninth, L. Check singled, English sliced a drive down the right field line, and both boys tallied as Pirillo overran the ball and Emblem led once more, 7-6. The next three men were retired in order.

Leading off for Guiffre's, Meneo hit a long fly ball to left for the first out, but Harrison and Pirillo each singled and then advanced on a wild pitch. Rich fanned for the second man down. Berardi stepped to the plate, Kifer hurled a wild pitch that scored Harrison to tie the game, and the former walked. Then Massa, with a full count on him, drove a liner over second base to win the ball game. Harrison was the winning pitcher and Kifer was credited with the loss.

DUNKIRK KOCH TEAM TO PLAY AT HOSPITAL

Through The Wind Tunnel

It was a roaring Thursday afternoon at Hackney Meadows along the Conewango. Several of the leading contestants in the outboard races to be held on Lake Chautauqua this week-end used the long open strip of water above North Warren dam as a practice course. Quick turns were what the boys wanted to practice, and quite naturally the dam made this maneuver even necessary. Although their ear drums th

IN AIR DEFENSE FILTER CENTER AT HARRISBURG

Mrs. R. R. Stoner, a civilian volunteer at the Filter Center, receives some pointers from Lieut. A. C. Kulp on a sample aircraft message form.

This is a general view of the Air Defense Filter Center in Harrisburg as civilian volunteers and Air Force men keep track of all planes in flight in the state through reports from civilian spotters. The Air Force men were used because of a shortage of civilian volunteers to man the Filter Center.

VFW Auxiliary To Present TV Set To The State Hospital

At the regular meeting of Dinamo-Schwung Auxiliary, VFW, held in the post rooms last evening, announcement was made by President Bessie Sullivan that a television set will be presented by the auxiliary to patients of Warren State Hospital in a special ceremony to take place at 7:30 this evening at the institution. All members of the auxiliary are invited and urged to be on hand for the presentation.

Plans were discussed, also, for the annual auxiliary picnic to be held in Crescent Park, the exact date and other details to be announced soon. The president appointed Martha Schueltz as picnic chairman and Marie Belton as program chairman.

Martha Schueltz and Raymah Akeley reported fountain pens had been presented from the auxiliary to the three inductees who left this week for the armed services.

Fine reports of the state convention in Pittsburgh were given by Marie Belton, Martha Schueltz and Gertrude Fitch. At those sessions, Mrs. Fitch was installed as president of District 19 Auxiliary, the past department president, Dora Raffensberger, conducting the induction.

Following last night's busy session, refreshments were served by Mary Anderson, Olga Peterson, Helen Honhart and Nellie Hoffman.

Deadline for Kids' Koaster Klassic Is Set for July 28th

The deadline for applications to the Kids' Koaster Klassic is Monday, July 28th. Application blanks found elsewhere in this paper should be mailed immediately. Don't miss this big event. Ask the boys who were in last year's race about the thrills in racing against other drivers. Don't let the opportunity go by again. Remember last year how you wished that you had entered the Kids' Koaster Klassic. This year there will be more prizes and other special events for the boys entered.

Again this year regulation racing wheels will be made available through Dan's Chevrolet for all boys who want them. The official Kids' Koaster Klassic sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held Saturday, September 13th.

Rules and regulations will be published in the near future, and every boy entered will receive a set of rules along with a diagram to guide him in building his racer. Each contestant will be given a helmet and a T-shirt for the race. Watch the paper for an announcement of a meeting of all drivers with the Kids' Koaster Klassic Committee. An evening of instruction combined with entertainment is assured the entering contestants. Act Now! Get your application in to the Times-Mirror for this big event of the summer.
